

RWA Update (Morning)

Wednesday 9th September 2026

Start	Finish
09:30	10:00	Arrival & Registration
10:00	10:10	Welcome and Introductions
10:10	10:30	CASE STUDY: Securing a Local Enforcement Position from the Environment Agency to Enable Lu-177 PSMA Treatment for a Patient at a Residential Care Home – Matthew Walker, GenesisCare
10:30	11:00	RMU Gamma Camera and NAIR - Matt Simpson, UKHSA
11:00	11:20	Unintended delivery/receipt of I123 – Paul Charnock, Integrated Radiological Services Ltd
11:20	11:50	Coffee
11:50	12:20	Environment Agency update - Alasdair FitzSimons-McKellar, Environment Agency
12:20	12:50	ONR update - Chris Jones, ONR
12:50	13:10	What happens when you monitor an area for the first time ever and why you wish you hadn't suggested it! – Emma O'Shaughnessy. University Hospitals Plymouth NHS Trust
13:10	14:10	Lunch

RWA Update (Afternoon)

Wednesday 9th September 2026

Start	Finish
14:10	14:40	Control of PPE of PPE and waste – Jon Walter & Peter Morgan, UnitechGB
14:40	14:50	Down the drain: A case study of how drains from an iodine ablation room were managed - Elizabeth Davies, University Hospitals of Leicester NHS Trust
14:50	15:00	Lutetium-177 Therapies and Septic Tanks Discussion - Julie Robinson, University College London Hospitals NHS Trust
15:00	15:30	Questions and topics from audience - round table discussion with the EA & ONR - Chaired by Emma O'Shaughnessy
15:30	16:00	Coffee
16:00	16:10	Centralisation of Nuclear Medicine Services within Lincolnshire: Experience of Permit Surrenders for Two Sites - Dr Kate van Elteren, United Lincolnshire Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
16:10	16:20	Legacy sources, an unwelcome time capsule – Anthony Murray, Bradford Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
16:20	16:30	Days of Future Past: Managing the Legacy (Part 1) - Amie Roberts, Cardiff and Vale UHB
16:30	16:40	Days of Future Past: Managing the Legacy (Part 2) - Emily Seymour, Cardiff and Vale UHB
16:40	16:50	Decommissioning of a Medical Cyclotron Production Facility - Christopher Marshall, Cardiff University
16:50	17:00	Close and Wrap Up
18:45	22:00	Meet at Mermaid Quay to board the Enterprise for the Cardiff Bay Cruise (pre-booked places only, please check with conferences@ipem.ac.uk if you are unsure)